

To Whom It May Concern

I recently completed a series of projects with Adrian Pirone of PIRONE BUILDERS as part of the redevelopment of properties at 484-492 Stirling Highway.

The works included the refurbishment of facades, modification of heritage listed shops and new constructions for showroom medical, retail, showroom and licensed premises.

The redevelopment involved significant complexities associated with heritage, fire compliance and works adjacent to the road reserve.

The works were staged to suit existing and new tenants with PIRONE BUILDERS successfully negotiating the operating requirements of both.

Adrian and his team including the site supervisor Joe Premici were both a cooperative and collaborative contributor to the building process bringing significant Joe Premici is a conscientious and trustworthy person who exercises diligence and responsibility above and beyond that which is normally required.

I have no hesitation in recommending PIRONE BUILDERS for a comprehensive role in the delivery of complex building projects which demand a superior level of finish.

Yours sincerely
